For parents: how to tell your child

A few words, the card, and what stays the same.

The night before

- If a snow day or a late start might happen, say so, and use the word "maybe". Show the card.
- Go over the home plan or the new time once. Keep it short.
- Point to what stays the same.

SAY

"Tomorrow there might be no school because of snow. If there is no school, we will stay home and do our home plan. We will know in the morning."

In the morning

- Tell your child as soon as you know. Use the same words as the card.
- Fill in the card: the home plan, the new time, or who picks up.
- Keep it where your child can see it all day.

SAY

"Today school starts late. You will go at 10:00. Until then, you can play with your blocks."

Tip: Try it once on a regular day, so the card is not new on a snow day.
