How The Bloom Way Works

A Bloom Autism Support approach

What it is

The Bloom Way is a set of small printable quests built around the things your child already loves. One sheet at a time, at home or in class.

How a Quest works

Pick a theme together and start at Level 1. Do the sheet, then stamp that level on the Passport. A sticker, a check or a drawing works just as well. Go on to Level 2, Level 3 and the Boss Level when your child is ready.

Calm by design

No timer, no score, no losing. Every sheet ends the same way: Done for today? That's fine. Come back any time.

Make it fit your child

Stomp, tap or clap. Point to the number, sign it or say it, if writing is not the way today. Go back to an earlier level as often as you like. Any way of doing it counts.

What it is not

It is not a test, and it is not a therapy. It is a friendly way to practice, made by Bloom Autism Support.
